

NUDURA Project Profile

CMTA Office Building - Lexington, Kentucky

FAST FACTS

- The building energy saving features include geothermal heating, with adjustable ECM motors, day lighting, LED lighting and solar powered systems
- Lighting systems in the building are designed to support the energy goals of the project and consume only .56 watts per square foot
- This project is the first LEED Platinum Office Building in Kentucky as well as the first LEED Platinum Office Building in Lexington

PROJECT STATISTICS

Location:

Lexington, Kentucky

Type:

Commercial CMTA Building

Size:

11,750 sq. ft.

ICF Use:

9,635 sq. ft.

Cost:

$2,900,000

Total Construction:

330 Days

ICF Installation Time:

90 Days

CONSTRUCTION TEAM

Owner:

Kevin Mussler

General Contractor:

Mike Ballard

ICF Distributor:

Dan Hilty

ICF Installer:

Victor Kunista

Architect:

Phil Gayhart

ICF System:

NUDURA Inc.

